SKIING THE 50's AUTUMN WINTER 2011

It was fun skiing in the 50's. But most of all, it was glamorous. Back in those days, the finest people would join for winter holidays in exquisite ski resorts, such as Chamonix, Davos or St. Moritz. Long wooden skis, pure white turtleneck sweaters and red lipstick were the latest fashion. Today, 2 Me has captured that elegant spirit in its Autumn/Winter 2011 Collection and created a line of winter footwear, where boots, leather and the colour white are the stars. This season, get ready to slide down the hill with style.
